Defendant.

CLERK'S OFFICE
U. S. DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN MICHIGAN

RULE 11 PLEA AGREEMENT

Pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, defendant Rasmieh Yousef Odeh and the government agree as follows:

1. GUILTY PLEA(S)

A. Count(s) of Conviction

Defendant will enter a plea of guilty to Count One of the First Superseding Indictment which charges procuring citizenship contrary to law, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1425(a), and for which the maximum penalty is 10 years' imprisonment and a $250,000 fine.

B. Elements of the Offense

The Elements of Count One are:

- (1) The defendant is a naturalized citizen;

(2) Who procured her naturalization;

(3) Contrary to law.

C. Factual Basis for Guilty Plea

Defendant Admits That the Following Facts Are True:

In 1969, Defendant Rasmieh Odeh was arrested and charged by an Israeli Military Court for participation in placing two bombs. One bomb had been placed in a supermarket. The other had been placed at the British Consulate. In 1970, Defendant Odeh was convicted of the charges and sentenced to life imprisonment, although she was released in 1979 after having served approximately ten years.

In December 1994, Defendant Rasmieh Odeh submitted an application for United States Immigrant Visa and Alien Registration, Department of State form 230. Question 21 of the Application for Immigrant Visa and Alien Registration required Odeh to list all places she had “lived for six months or longer since reaching the age of 16.” Defendant Odeh’s full response falsely stated that she had lived in Amman, Jordan, from 1948 onward, thereby intentionally omitting the fact that following her release from prison she had lived in Lebanon for approximately three years.

Question 33 of the Application for Immigrant Visa and Alien Registration asked whether Defendant Odeh ever had been convicted of a crime of moral turpitude, or of two or more offenses for which the aggregate sentences were five years or more imprisonment. Defendant Odeh falsely checked the box marked “No.”

Question 34 of the Application for Immigrant Visa and Alien Registration asked if Defendant Odeh had ever been “arrested, convicted, or ever been in a prison[.]” Defendant Odeh falsely checked the box marked “No.”

On June 4, 2004, defendant Odeh filed an application for naturalization (Form N-400) with United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to afford her the status of a United States citizen. On November 3, 2004, an immigration officer interviewed Defendant Odeh regarding her naturalization application at the USCIS office in Detroit, Michigan.

In defendant’s naturalization application defendant made the following material false statements, which she reiterated and reaffirmed during her naturalization interview:

1. Defendant falsely stated that she had never been arrested, cited or detained by any law enforcement officer or military officer.
2. Defendant falsely stated that she had never been charged with committing any crime or offense.
3. Defendant falsely stated that she had never been convicted of a crime or offense.

4. Defendant falsely stated that she had never been in jail or prison.

5. Defendant falsely stated that she had never given false or misleading information to any U.S. government official while applying for any immigration benefit or to prevent deportation, exclusion or removal.

At the time she made the false statements, Defendant knew the statements were false. Defendant also admits that all of these false statements were material, in that they had a natural tendency to affect the decision of the State Department and USCIS. She made the false statements intentionally and not as a result of any mistake, Post Traumatic Stress Disorder or any other psychological issue or condition or for any innocent reason, and notwithstanding any other statement or testimony Defendant Odeh may have made at any other time regarding those answers. At the time she made the false statements, Defendant knew that it was unlawful for her to provide false information to the United States Department of State and to United States Citizenship and Immigration Services in connection with her application for Immigrant Visa and her application for naturalization. On December 9, 2004, defendant was sworn in as a United States citizen in an oath ceremony conducted by the United States District Court, Eastern District of Michigan. Defendant procured her citizenship by virtue of the false statements, because she would not have been granted citizenship had she revealed the truth.

2. SENTENCING GUIDELINES

A. Standard of Proof

The Court will find sentencing factors by a preponderance of the evidence.

B. Agreed Guideline Range

There are no sentencing guideline disputes. Except as provided below, defendant's guideline range is 0 to 6 months, as set forth on the attached worksheets. The United States and the defendant stipulate that U.S.S.G. § 2L2.2 is the applicable guideline section for defendant's offense conduct.

If the Court finds:

a) that defendant's criminal history category is higher than reflected on the attached worksheet, or

b) that the offense level should be higher because, after pleading guilty, defendant made any false statement to or withheld information from her probation officer; otherwise demonstrated a lack of acceptance of responsibility for her offense(s); or obstructed justice or committed any crime, and if any such finding results in a guideline range higher than 0 to 6 months, the higher guideline range becomes the agreed range. However, if the Court finds that defendant is a career offender, an armed career criminal, or a repeat and dangerous sex offender as defined under the sentencing guidelines or other federal law, and that finding is not already reflected in the attached worksheets, this paragraph does not authorize a corresponding increase in the agreed range.

Neither party may take a position concerning the applicable guidelines that is different than any position of that party as reflected in the attached worksheets, except as necessary to the Court's determination regarding subsections a) and b) of this Paragraph. Apart from the actual calculation of the sentencing guideline range, this agreement does not limit defendant's ability to argue for a sentence below the stipulated sentencing guideline range based on the sentencing factors of 18 U.S.C. § 3553.

3. SENTENCE

The Court will impose a sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3553, and in doing so must consider the sentencing guideline range.

A. Imprisonment

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C) the sentence of imprisonment in this case may not exceed the time which defendant already has served and for which she is entitled to credit.

B. Supervised Release

A term of supervised release may follow any term of imprisonment. The Court may impose a term of supervised release on Count One of up to 3 years. However, the government will ask the Court to impose no term of supervised release because, as a result of this plea agreement and its provisions relating to a judicial order of removal, Defendant shall be removed from the United States.

C. Special Assessment

Defendant will pay a special assessment of $100 and must provide the government with a receipt for the payment before sentence is imposed.

D. Fine

The Court may impose a fine on Count One of the Indictment in any amount up to $250,000. There is no agreement as to the fine which the Court may impose.

E. Restitution

Restitution is not applicable to this case.

4. STIPULATION TO JUDICIAL ORDER OF REMOVAL AND TO FORFEITURE OF LAWFUL PERMANENT RESIDENT STATUS

A. Defendant admits that upon sentencing her United States citizenship will be revoked and her certificate of naturalization will be canceled, pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1451(e). Defendant agrees and understands that as a result of her guilty plea she will no longer be a United States citizen. Defendant is a citizen of Jordan. Defendant also understands that once her United States citizenship is revoked she will revert to being a Lawful Permanent Resident of the United States. Defendant agrees that she will forfeit her Lawful Permanent Resident status. Defendant agrees to execute any documents necessary to effectuate the forfeiture of her Lawful Permanent Resident status. Defendant understands that as a result of the revocation of her United States citizenship and forfeiture of her Lawful Permanent Resident Status, she will not be allowed to remain in the United States. Defendant also understands that she will be barred by law from ever applying again to reenter the United States.

B. Defendant also admits that she is removable from the United States pursuant to Title 8, United States Code, Section 1227(a)(1)(A). Defendant waives any right that she may have to receive notice of intent to request judicial removal and a charge containing factual allegations regarding the removal. Defendant understands and knowingly waives her right to a hearing before an immigration judge or any other authority under the Immigration and Nationality Act on the question of her removability from the United States. Defendant further understands the rights she would possess in a contested administrative proceeding and waives these rights, including her right to examine the evidence against her, to present evidence on her behalf, and to cross-examine witnesses presented by the government.

C. Defendant further waives any rights that she may have to apply for any relief or protection from removal, including but not limited to asylum, withholding of removal, adjustment of status, cancelation of removal, registry, waiver of inadmissibility, protection under the United Nations Convention Against Torture, or any other relief or protection from removal whether stated herein or not, under the Immigration and Nationality Act or any other federal statute, regulation, or treaty. Defendant further requests that an order be issued by this Court for her removal to her country of citizenship, Jordan, or, subject to consultation with and approval of ICE, any other country which agrees to accept her admission. Defendant agrees to accept a written order of removal as a final disposition of these proceedings and waives any rights she may have to appeal the order issued.

United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) concurs in the judicial removal of defendant, as evidenced by the attached concurrence by Special Agent in Charge Steven Francis.

D. Given that defendant is agreeing to a judicial order of removal, defendant acknowledges and accepts that she will lose her United States citizenship and then be removed and deported from the United States as a result of this plea agreement and the entry of her guilty plea.

E. Defendant intends to execute the judicial order of removal by departing the United States when and how directed to by United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) and subject to such terms or conditions as ICE directs. The parties stipulate that defendant's bond and conditions of bond shall be continued through sentencing up to and including her removal, if necessary; provided, however, that should defendant fail to carry out the travel arrangements when as directed by ICE which will constitute her removal from the United States, then her bond shall be canceled and the bail shall be forfeited, and defendant understands that in such instance she will be placed in ICE custody and her removal shall be effectuated by ICE while she is in custody. The parties agree that defendant shall be under an Order of Supervision by ICE during such time following her sentencing but prior to the date set by ICE for her removal. The parties further agree that if she complies with the terms of this agreement, ICE will not take defendant into administrative immigration custody during such period from her sentencing through the date for her removal set by ICE.

5. WAIVER OF RIGHT TO APPEAL

The defendant waives any right she may have to appeal her conviction or judicial order of removal. If the defendant's sentence does not exceed the time she already has served and for which she is entitled to credit, the defendant also waives any right she may have to appeal her sentence.

6. CONSEQUENCES OF WITHDRAWAL OF GUILTY PLEA(S) OR VACATION OF CONVICTION

If defendant is allowed to withdraw her guilty plea or if any conviction entered pursuant to this agreement is vacated, the Court shall, on the government's request, reinstate any charges that were dismissed as part of this agreement. If additional charges are filed against defendant within six months after the date the order vacating defendant's conviction or allowing her to withdraw her guilty plea becomes final, which charges relate directly or indirectly to the conduct underlying the guilty plea or to any conduct reflected in the attached worksheets, defendant waives her right to challenge the additional charges on the ground that they were not filed in a timely manner, including any claim that they were filed after the limitations period expired

7. PARTIES TO PLEA AGREEMENT

Unless otherwise indicated, this agreement does not bind any government agency except the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Michigan, provided however that Paragraph Four is binding on United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

8. SCOPE OF PLEA AGREEMENT

This agreement, which includes all documents that it explicitly incorporates, is the complete agreement between the parties. It supersedes all other promises, representations, understandings, and agreements between the parties concerning the subject matter of this plea agreement that are made at any time before the guilty plea is entered in court. Thus, no oral or written promises made by the government to defendant or to the attorney for defendant at any time before defendant pleads guilty are binding except to the extent they have been explicitly incorporated into this agreement.

Except as provided in Paragraph Four, this agreement does not prevent any civil or administrative actions against defendant, or any forfeiture claim against any property, by the United States or any other party.

The parties agree that each of them has participated in the drafting of this Agreement, and that it shall not be construed against either of them by virtue of its draftsmanship.

The parties agree that all pending motions shall be deemed withdrawn and dismissed by the Court.

9. ACCEPTANCE OF AGREEMENT BY DEFENDANT

This plea offer expires unless it has been received, fully signed, in the Office of the United States Attorney by 2:00 P.M. on April 26, 2017. The government reserves the right to modify or revoke this offer at any time before defendant pleads guilty.
